THE LIFE OF
WILLIAM, EARL OF SHELBURNE,
AFTERWARDS
FIRST MARQUESS OF LANSDOWNE.

WITH EXTRACTS FROM HIS PAPERS AND CORRESPONDENCE.
By LORD EDMOND FITZMAURICE.

In Two Vols.

"This is a volume of extraordinary interest and value. 'One of the suppressed characters of English history' is restored to us, and we marvel only that Lord Shelburne's autobiography should have waited to be edited by his great-grandson, instead of having been published early in the present century by his son, unless, as we hear, its existence was really unknown till last year. Good as it is, to our great wonder, it is better as a book of gossip than as a book of history. The characters of leading statesmen are gems, and epigrams which will dwell in the memory abound." Athenaeum.

This day, in 2 vols. 8vo, price 28s.

MACREADY'S REMINISCENCES, and SELECTIONS from his DIARIES and LETTERS. Edited by Sir FREDERICK POLLOCK, Bart., one of his Executors. 2 vols. 8vo, with Four Portraits, engraved by JEENS. 28s. [This day.]

The Right Hon. FRANCIS BLACKBURNE, late LORD CHANCELLOR OF IRELAND, his LIFE, chiefly in connexion with his Public and Political Career. By his Son, EDWARD BLACKBURNE, Q.C. 8vo, with Portrait, engraved by JEENS. 12s. [This day.]

"Mr. Edward Blackburne has written an excellent book. A short, pointed work such as this is far more effective than a long and laboured, even though trustworthy, chronicle of a man's life. . . . It gives a remarkable picture of the administration of the law in Ireland during the present generation, with its various difficulties and complications, and shows also how dependent the highest authorities are upon the resident Irish legal officials."—Spectator.

TWELFTH ANNUAL PUBLICATION, REVISED AFTER OFFICIAL RETURNS.

The STATESMAN'S YEAR-BOOK for 1875: a Statistical and Historical Annual of the States of the Civilized World. Handbook for Politicians and Merchants. By F. MARTIN. Crown 8vo, 10s. 6d.

All the information that could possibly be desired by politicians, merchants, and public speakers and writers, relative to the Constitution and Government, the Church and education, the revenue and expenditure, the army and navy, the area and population, the commerce, industry, and trade of every civilized country in the world, is to be found, readily accessible, within the small limits of this admirable year-book."—Standard.

"It stands alone as the one general history of the country, for the sake of which all others, if young and old are wise, will be speedily and surely set aside."—Academy.

ELSIE: a Lowland Sketch. By A. C. M. Crown 8vo, 6s. [This day.]

GOVINDA SAMANTA; or, the History of a Bengal Raiyat. By the Rev. LAL BEHARI DAX. 2 vols. crown 8vo, 21s.

"The work before us is not only excellently conceived and well written, but it deals with topics which, if familiar to Indian administrators, are to the English reader as novel as the incidents in 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.'"—Saturday Review.

"Besides writing a novel of a perfectly original character, one which even the most blasé frequenter of the circulating library must acknowledge to be out of the common, he has contrived to give us an immense amount of information concerning the peasantry of India."—Morning Post.

"In one respect it is a striking and valuable work. It presents the best and truest picture we possess of the poor agricultural labourer of Bengal. . . . Unique in its way, a simple narrative wonderfully complete and intensely realistic."—Athenaeum.

The HARBOUR BAR: a Tale of Scottish Life. 2 vols, 21s. [This day.]

"Upon the working out of Elsie's character the author has expended the more labour, and with good results too, for rarely in fiction is there to be met with a more perfectly finished picture of a true-hearted, unselfish woman. . . . The description of the terrible catastrophe of the storm on the Harbour Bar is perfect in its graphic vigour and intensity."—Morning Post.

"Bright, picturesque, and true to life. The love-story of poor Wattie and Elsie is and enough at last, but abounds with touches of true pathos, freshness, and truth, while in such pictures as that of the storm, the author rises to a height of very considerable power. Altogether the story is readable and pleasant from first to last, growing in interest as it proceeds, and everywhere showing that the author is really at home in all the vivid scenes which he portrays."—Standard.

TALES in POLITICAL ECONOMY. By MILLICENT GARRETT FAWCETT, Author of "Political Economy for Beginners." Globe 8vo, 3s.

"The idea is a good one, and it is quite wonderful what a mass of economic teaching the author manages to compress into a small space. . . . The true doctrines of international trade, currency, and the ratio between production and population, are set before us and illustrated in a masterly manner."—Athenaeum.

EGYPTIAN SEPULCHRES and SYRIAN SHRINES; including a Visit to Palmyra. By EMILY A. BEAUFORT (Viscountess Strangford), Author of "The Eastern Shores of the Adriatic." New Edition, crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

"This delightful book of travels includes a visit to Palmyra, which is described with singularly picturesque power. The fund of new information contained in the volume, and the pleasant method of communicating it, will make the volume a real favourite with all who take an interest in travel."—Standard.

"It is difficult to do ample justice to this pleasant narrative of travel. . . . The translator has admirably preserved the vivid style of the foreign original, especially in the racy, minute manner in which grotesque little details—evinced the keen observer—are rendered into excellent English. . . . The descriptions are wonderfully vivid and well painted. . . . The work does not contain a single dull paragraph."—Morning Post.

POPULAR ELEMENTARY SCIENTIFIC BOTANY.

THE ELEMENTS of BOTANY for FAMILIES and SCHOOLS. The Eleventh Edition, revised by THOMAS MOORE, F.L.S., Curator of Chelsea Botanic Garden; Joint-Editor of Lindley and Moore's "Treasury of Botany."

The Tenth Edition of this work was very carefully revised and in some parts re-written. It was augmented by a copious Glossarial Index, and improved by the introduction of numerous illustrations of a character superior to those which had formerly been employed. The Eleventh Edition has undergone further revision, with a view to making its condensed state as clear and precise as possible, and, besides this, a less technical, but it is hoped more useful and interesting sketch of the natural orders of plants, indicating the source of many useful, economic, elementary, or medicinal substances—though necessarily very inadequate to the full knowledge of the subject—has been introduced.

MR. SAMUEL TINSLEY'S LIST OF NEW AND FORTHCOMING WORKS.

READY.

UNTRODDEN SPAIN, and her BLACK COUNTRY. Being

Sketches of the Life and Character of the Spaniard of the Interior. By HUGH JAMES ROSE, M.A., of Oriel College, Oxford; Chaplain to the English, French, and German Mining Companies of Linares; and formerly Acting Chaplain to Her Majesty's Forces at Dover Garrison. In 2 vols. 8vo, price 30s.

The ATHENAEUM says:—

"The result of his observations is one of the most trustworthy and interesting books upon Spanish life and manners in the southern provinces during a period of great political disquiet that we have ever had the good fortune to peruse. Evidently a gentleman and a scholar, with, in spite of his profession, a dash of the sportsman, Mr. Rose combines the calm good faith of the historian with the acumen of an advocate. . . . We regret that we cannot make further extracts, for 'Untrodden Spain' is by far the best book upon Spanish peasant life that we have ever met with. Valuable information is imparted in a honest, straightforward manner; and nothing is exaggerated. Travellers proverbially tell strange stories, but Mr. Rose has drawn upon fancy neither for his facts nor for figures."

The STANDARD says:—

"The author of this work has proved satisfactorily that there was room for another book on Spain. . . . It is fresh, life-like, and chatty, and is written by a man who is accustomed to look below the surface of things."

The JOHN BULL says:—

"Leaving subjects worn threadbare, or touching them lightly, he analyses in a way no one else has done the Spanish character. He has looked beneath the surface, and he has seen for himself some of their institutions. His sketch of domestic life in Spain is beyond praise. . . . We have rarely been able to recommend a book more cordially. It has not a dull page, and no one can rise from its perusal without learning more about Spain than he ever learnt by the most diligent perusal of political letters from that ill-fated country. For our author (whose style is good, method of arrangement lucid, and sympathies warm) not only is a keen observer of things below the surface, but has the rare art of imparting his information in a form alike pleasant and intelligible. The book deserves to be a great success."

The FIELD says:—

"An amount of really valuable information respecting the lower classes of Spaniards, their daily life and conversation, and ways of looking at things, such as few writers have given us."

SHAKESPEARE COMMENTARIES. By Dr. G. G. GERVINUS, Professor at Heidelberg. Translated, under the Author's superintendence, by F. E. BUNNETT. New and Cheap Edition, thoroughly revised by the Translator. With a Preface by F. J. FURNIVALL, Esq.

Extract from Mr. Furnivall's Introduction to the Work.

"The profound and generous 'Commentaries' of Gervinus—an honour to a German to have written, a pleasure to an Englishman to read—is still the only book known to me that comes near the true treatment and the dignity of its subject, or can be put into the hands of the student who wants to know the mind of Shakspeare. These words were written by me in the autumn of 1873, when I founded the New Shakspeare Society. Their truth has been confirmed by all the best judges to whom I have spoken about Gervinus's 'Commentaries' since."

DAILY TELEGRAPH, Feb. 3, 1875.

"It is to the pages of the learned Gervinus that the lovers of Shakspeare should go if they want to see an intellectual apotheosis of his genius."
